

Maya Bakhazi Noun

CEO – Acquisitions-M SAL

Maya Noun specializes in creating, investing, managing and operating food and beverage outlets in Lebanon and the Gulf region. Started out with concepts such as “Tribeca Coffee and Bagels, Pinocchio, The Beirut Cellar, Fiona’s... ” and many more.

With a background and experience in Finance and Banking, Ventured in the food and Beverage Business in 2000, a hobby which became very successful and developed into a full time regional business. In 2012, co-founded “The Food Gallery Gulf ” a company based in the UAE and expanded the operation to cover the Gulf Region. She is also a consultant for big food and beverage companies and Internationally renowned restaurant chains.

Maya actively participates in regional conferences such as “Leading Business Women in the Arab World”, regional conferences on Small and medium size enterprises, MENA Business Women’s Summit...

Born in Lebanon, grew up between Beirut and London. Studied at the International college (IC) in Beirut and at the Lycee Francais - London. Holds a B.S. degree in Business Management from LAU and an executive MBA from the American College in London.

Married to Dr. Ziad Noun, Mother of Gabriella and Sophia. With a passion for Cooking , she has completed several advanced courses in fine dining and special courses with Michelin Star chefs as well as courses in dining and decorative arts.

